What is the play about? Perhaps it is about tyranny, metaphysical anguish, illusion. Perhaps it is about allowing oneself to experience it with openness. Before one hates it because it's different, threatening, unnerving, even boring, one might see what one can find. About the play. About oneself. Then decide. Or not.

Activities

Day Student Gov't.

The DSG is a unique student government in its independence from the school's administration. It distributes over $200,000 in Student Activity Fees to Clubs and Organizations and student-related social functions. The DSG is an organization that every day student is a member of and is the key to student involvement and social life on campus.

The DSG recognizes every day student as a member, but only those students voted upon by the majority of all day students may vote. These positions are the Delegates, Board of Governors, and Executive Council.

Under the Lupacchino Administration the elected students are:

President	Donato Lupacchino
Vice President	Kevin Clancey
Treasurer	Colleen Hartigan
Executive Assistant	Thomas Hodgkinson

No. 500 Puts Vieira in Exclusive Club

Vieira became the eighteenth active NCAA coach, in all divisions, to record #500. He also became the fifth this season to do it. Vieira currently stands as the fourth winningest Division II coach in the country, and his winning percentage of .813 is tops in the nation.

"This thing put a lot of pressure on the kids," said the coach. "We lost two games before we could win the 499th. I tried to get the point across that we were going to get the win sooner or later, so why not sooner?"

The Fifty-Ninth Annual Commencement

According to an old wives' tale good luck is brought to those who are rained on (or in as the case may be). If there is any merit to this tale at all the Class of 1982 will be forever drenched with good luck!

This was to be the first year in the history of UNH (on its present grounds) where an outdoor commencement ceremony was to take place. But because of the State of Emergency called in many parts of Connecticut, including the New Haven area, graduation was postponed until the following Sunday. Unending downpours of steady rain continued to flood Connecticut and keep it in a State of Emergency for many days.

To no avail, the following weekend brought few glimmers of hope of having an outdoor graduation. Even though the rain continued the 59th Annual University of New Haven Commencement went on — inside of course.

Richard H. Bowerman, Board Chairman of Southern Connecticut Gas Co. and former member of the UNH governing board, delivered the commencement address. Bowerman explains to the graduates that "Yours is the generation which must examine our institutions with a critical eye for the purpose of making them better . . . not to destroy them, but to improve them."

Ernest Saunders, one of the first black engineers in the state and founder and president emeritus of the Connecticut Afro-American Historical Society, was presented an honorary doctor of humane letters degree while Richard H. Bowerman was presented an honorary doctorate of law.

The top graduate was Annalynn Grillo, who received a bachelor of arts degree in sociology while maintaining a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

"The weather may have rained us out last week and in this week, but we are going to have a celebration," said University Secretary Walter Jewell.

1981-1982 Distinguished Teacher's Award

In a special presentation, Natalie S. Ferringer, assistant professor of political science, received the first annual University Award for Distinguished Teaching. A faculty committee selected Dr. Ferringer from among those members of the faculty nominated by colleagues and students to receive the $1,000 award.

The West Haven resident was cited for her innovative teaching and her "guidance and concern" for students extending beyond the classroom.

Her professional memberships include the American Political Science Assoc., American Society of International Law, American Academy of Social and Political Science and the World Future Society.

All senior portraits taken by Delma Studios, Park Avenue, New York.

The 1982 Chariot was printed and published by the Delmar Company of North Carolina; Brian Hawthorne Publishing Representative.

All photos that appear on pages 36 and 37, 40 and 41 are to the credit of Heritage Studio of Hamden, CT. All photos of graduation, and on pages 208 and 216 are to the credit of the Public Relations of UNH.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the people who in an indirect direct way helped myself and the staff put together and complete this yearbook. First, on my list is Brian Hawthorne, my representative from Delmar Co. and a very dear friend. Brian you made it all happen even when I thought it couldn't or wouldn't. Next is the Public Relations staff, which helped me fill in the wholes that seemed so large. Then there is the Security staff always making me feel very secure even on those late, late nights. There are also those people who seem to be able to get you anything and everything you need from lists of names and places to morale boosting . . . thank-you Barbara McGuill, Mr. Mascionus, P.R. and Clare for being those kinds of people. I would also like to thank Davenport Photo for their patience and generous contributions. Lastly I would like to thank all my understanding friends for putting up with my not so good moods when things weren't going so well. Rick, with your continual encouragement and tremendous help we made it; and you were right, things did work out just fine. Its been a nice year.
